Reading Assignment X

Authors: Your names

1 Motivation

Describe the motivation of the paper. WHY is the addressed problem interesting and important to be solved?

2 Contributions

Explain the main contributions of the paper. WHAT are the solved problems? The authors of this paper solve this and that problem. Their main contributions include this and that. blabla ... You may optionally use a list of contributions. For example:

- First contribution
- Second contribution
- Third contribution

3 Solution

Very briefly explain HOW the authors solve the mentioned problems.

4 Strong Points

List at least three strong points of the paper. Is the solution good? How good is the evaluation of the work?

- S1. blablabla
- S2. blablabla
- S3. blablabla

5 Weak Points

List at least three weak points of the paper. What are the disadvantages and shortcomings of the solution given by the authors? Did the authors overlook anything during the evaluation of their solution?

- W1. blablabla
- W2. blablabla
- W3. blablabla

6   Questions

Depending on the paper assigned, you may get further instructions, if there is something specifically interesting in a reading assignment. For example, you may be asked about comparison, differences, or similarities between the solution given in the assigned paper and other solutions that are presented in the lectures. The answers to these questions must be given in a separate page. For example:

- Q1. Answer to the first question goes here.

- Q2. Answer to the second question goes here.

- Q3. Answer to the third question goes here.